POVERTY AND PRIDE DROVE ARTIST TO

and Out and Too Proud to Beg of Rich Friends.

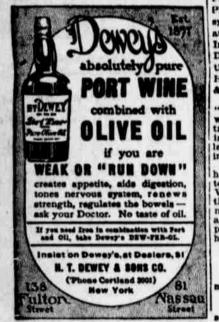

After he had faced dire want for cared for by them. If in life he had ermitted them to know that he was need aid would have been quickly for their friend. stended, but the only one who knew was the aged lady who had cared for his studio room at No. 360 West

"Gets-It" for Corns,

Any Corn, With "Gets-It" on It, Is an Absolute "Goner!"

rise just to see them come off with lets-It." It just loosens the corn from a true flash, casily, and then makes it me "clean off." 48 hours ands corns r keeps. It makes the use of tape, cornuceum, bandages, irritaring salves, lives, sciences and rester really look diculous. Get rid of those corns quickly, rely, painlessiy— just easily— with lets-It." For warts and bunions, too. 's the 20th century way.

Twenty-second Street. His friends' ret knowledge of his poverty came know that he was in need, too proud to appeal to them." said the woman came here he was very cheerful and went away, he left a note for me saying: 'Don't disturb my room until I return."

for him were told of the note the elderly artist had left and they came to believe he was visiting friends. many months and with a cheerful Carroll Beckwith, the artist, and W. untenance met wealthy friends who H. Watrous, Secretary of the National never suspected his embarrassment, Academy of Design, finally decided the body of William Walton, an ar- all was not well and when they heard tist and writer on art, is to-day being from the studio attendant of the troubles he had kept secret from them they appealed to the police to look Dr. William Hoag, a dentist, at No.

131 Madison Avenue, and an intimate friend of Mr. Walten, joined in the search, and yesterday at the Flatbush Morgue he came upon the body. It had been there ten days, having been SURE as Sunrise! picked up three and a half miles off the Rockaway Point buoy by Capt. Eastman of the Sheepshead Ferry In a few days it would have been on the way to an unmarked grave in Potter's Field, but Dr. Hosg, Mr. Beckwith and other friends will care for it and he will be given an honored burial.

> Until just before he disappeared Mr. Walton had been a frequent visitor to the Century Association and to the National Arts Club on Gramercy Square, of which he was a member Younger artists came to him for criticlam of their work, and the older men sought his company. All believe he writings and paintings, and he never llowed them to suspect otherwise. "It was one of Mr. Walton's keenes his atudio at No. 59 West Forty-fifth writer overshadowed his fame as an artist. He was a dreamer and painted beautiful conceptions, but Americans are only paying high prices for the work of foreigners, and so perhaps his paintings did not sell. He was melancholy of late, but I never suspected

Mr. Walton was seventy-two years old and early in life was known for his French translations. He was born in Philadelphia and studied at the Pennsylvania Academy of Fine Arts, and at the National Academy of Design. In Paris he was a pupil of Carolus Duran. His first literary work was the translation of the works of Victor Hugo for the firm of George Barrie 8 Son, of Philadelphia.

Soveral years ago he published a "History of Banking," which met with some success. He wrote many treatises on art. He devoted himself in his painting to landscape work largely, and was noted for his paintings of wood

MABEL'S ATTITUDE.

"Your daughter seems to have a great many suitora."
"Yes, at least four or five."
"Which one does she favor?"
"I don't knew. She seems to be ob-serving a strict neutrality."

when his body was identified in the norgue after having been picked up in the water off Rockaway Point. "He was too proud to let his friends who shared his secret, to-day. "For a long time I have seen how things were. He was down and out, but he would not let me even mention such a thing. To the few friends who William Walton Was Down smiling. Three weeks ago, when he

For two weeks friends who called had saved a competency from his regrets," Mr. Beckwith said to-day in Street, "that his fame as a critic and the reason for it."

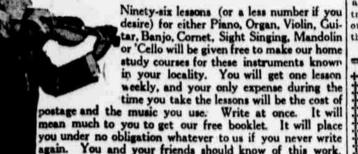

ings on wood.

For more than twenty-five years he had lived in his studio room on the top floor of the studio building on West Twenty-second Street. With the changing of the neighborhood many of his artist friends moved away, but he remained and away, but he remained and was eque figure in the neigh

Music Lessons in Your Own Home

New Easy Method. Write for Special Free husband. I had one son during my freshot truition Offer. All You Pay For Is the Music.

> A wonderful offer to every lover of music, whether a beginner or an advanced player.

again. You and your friends should know of this work. If undreds of our pupils write:
"Wish I had known of your school before." "Have learned more in one term in my home with your weekly lessons than in three terms with private teachers and at a great deal less expense." "Everything is so thorough and complete." "The lessons are marvels of simplicity, and my 11-year-old boy has not had the least trouble to learn."

One minister writes: "As each succeeding lesson comes I am more and more fully persuaded I made no mistake in the sand more fully persuaded I made n

What Pupils Say: becoming your pupil."

Established 1898—have thousands of pupils from seven years of age to seventy.

Don't say you cannot learn music, but send for our free booklet and tuition offer. Mail this coupon or write a letter. It will be sent by return mail free. Address U. S. School of Music, Dept. E. W., 225 Fifth Ave., New York City. Tear Along This Line and Mail To-day.

U.S.School of Music, Dept. E.W. 225 Fifth Avenue, New York City. Gentlemen: Send me your Free Booklet and Tuition offer. I am interceled in learning to play the instrument I have obecked.

Piano Organ Violin Guitar Banjo Cornet | Sight Singing | Mandolin | 'Cello

action of the second se

THE AMERICAN MOTHER OF TO-DAY

More Hard Knocks for the American Father; He Is the Selfish Tyrant Who Makes Some American Mothers a Failure and Spoils the Children and Poisons Their Lives.

By Marguerite Mooers Marshall.

The American mother of to-day cannot succeed if she is handicapped the American father.

That is the opinion of a number of Evening World readers, and they also appear to be convinced that in many instances father is a failure. How he hurts and destroys the efforts of the American mother is told in several of the letters published below. If he is a selfish tyrant, one writer argues, she cannot bring up the children to be courteous, considerate, generous citizens. And when he is stingy about money the children, especially the girls, receive so unhappy an impression of married life that they are likely to avoid it for themselves.

What's wrong with the American father? He is so closely associated with the American mother that she should be ready to let him enter any AMERICA'S GREATNESS DUE TO discussion of her. And is she justified in attributing to him her failure-admiration of her husband and the father of her children? Is he to blame for the diminishing size of the American family? Does he refuse to help the mother in caring for and controlling the children? Is it true that these children suffer from being the husband and the hours about his medical knowledge and authority and about calling in a father women in New York? No, she did not have to see any one of us. Honor to the American mother, no matter what mother live like many foreign-born women in New York? No, she did not have to come to fall to see any one of us. Honor to the American mother, no matter what mother live like many foreign-born women in New York? No, she did not have to come to fall to see any one of us. Honor to the American mother, no matter what mother live like many foreign-born women in New York? No, she did not have to come to fall to see any one of us. Honor to the American mother, no matter what mother live like many foreign-born women in New York? No, she did not have to see any one of us. Honor to the American mother, no matter what mother live like many foreign-born women in New York? No, she did not have to see any one of us. Honor to the American mother, no matter what to see any one of us. Honor to the American mother, no matter what to see any one of us. Honor to the American mother, no matter what to see any one of us. Honor to the American mother, no matter what to see any one of us. Honor to the American mother, no matter what to see any one of us. Honor to the American mother, no matter what to see any one of us. Honor to the American mother, no matter what to see any one of us. Honor to the American mother, no mother live like many foreign-born women in New York? No, she did not have to see any one of us. Honor to the American mother, no mother live like many foreign-born women in New York? No, she did not have to see any one of us. trolling the children? Is it true that these children suffer from being brought up in a home where there are disputes about money and other quarrels, and that the father is to blame more than the mother for this unhappy state of affairs? I should like the receive some letters about the

"Dear Madam: You are now asking: Is the enother of to-day a failure? Is the father of to-day a failure?

"I can say this: Where a woman persists in living with a tyrant or quarrelsome man and has children who are brought up to see such an example for a father, the children are chips of the old block, selfish, domineerill-tempered, cruel. The mother is a decided failure in such a family, for she is not forming future good citizens. The father, of course, is abominable, a menace to everybody. Yet how many women and children shiver before the father and hus-

"Let me tell you of my own experience. I have been married eight years, three years with my first husband and five years with my present come to bless my second union. My first husband was the typical tyrant. It was an impossibility to please him, do what one would. He always found fault. He had to be consulted about everything, no matter how Everything was thrashed out and quarrelled over, and everything cost too much.

band, and live in abject fear of

"If baby wasn't feeling well I had

Ends Dry, Hoarse or Painful Coughs Quickly

bottle and fill the bottle with plain gran-ulated sugar syrup. This makes a full pint—a family supply—of the most ef-fective cough remedy at a cost of only 34 cents or less. You couldn't buy as much ready-made cough medicine for $2.50. Easily prepared and never spoils. Full directions with Pinex.

Pinex is a highly concentrated com-pound of genuine Norway pine extract, rich in guniacol and is famous the world over for its splendid effect in bronchitis, whooping cough, bronchial asthma and winter coughs.

To avoid disappointment in making when she does fail? What do Evening World readers think about it?

Do they believe that the mother of to try all kinds of homemade stuff to-day must make herself look like a until his fever went up high. Mean-painted doll to retain the love and while his father would quarrel for all. She did not have to come to fail to receive some letters about the fered with; in fact, I can do as I see American father and his share in the fit and need not consult my husband. | IGNATZ HAMBOR KILLED success or failure of the American He is considered pleasant and cheerful. He loves my first boy the same as his own. He never is unkind to th children and never even speaks about my unfortunate first marriage. We talk over things and plan together. Love and consideration reign supreme in our home. Our children are being brought up in the right surroundings They don't see disputes, quarrels and one-sided domination. Everything is Garfield Worsted Mills of Passaic, N. orderly and quiet.

"My first husband's father was the throughout the country, was killed same as he is. He has three more early this morning when his autobrothers like himself. One of them, mobile turned turtle at Lakeview who is married, is not living with and Clifton Avenues, burying him his wife. They've been separated three times. No child can ever be happy or properly brought up, no mother can do her full duty, in a stantaneous. home where there is discord. Love Robert Deyes, the only other pas-and consideration should guide. The Golden Rule should be practiced by Golden Rule should be practised by every mother and father. "C. L."

"Dear Madam: I have tried to be a good mother to my children. but the fact that their father is a aelfish miser, that he has never hesitated to sacrific my comfort or that of the children to his own, has poisoned all their ideals of married life. My oldest son believes that he must stay at home to protect me; my two daughters have had chances to marry, but they say that they have seen too much of domestic life at home. I wonder if any Evening World reader can tell me how a mother can succeed under the canditions which I shall describe.

"My twenty-fifth wedding anniversary will be in December. I have been married to a smart, active man, and I have borne him nine children, seven eoys and two giris. In the first place, selfish miser, that he has never

Painful Coughs
Quickly

A simple, Home-Made Remedy, Inexpensive, but Unequalled.
The prompt and positive results given by this pleasant tasting, home-made cough syrup has caused it to be used in more homes than any other remedy. It gives almost instant relief and will usually overcome the average cough in 2s hours.

Get 2½ ounces Pinex (50 cents' worth) from any drug store, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup. This makes a full pint—a family supply—of the most effective words.

Have borne him nine children, seven weys and two giris. In the first place, this man has always been of a leal-oux, morose disposition. The first nine months we were married be gave me his wages, $25, which at that time (1890) was a nice wage. Then some man in his place of business said he gave his wife 32 a week. Then he tried money from that day.

"I arrived at my majority and inherited money from that day.

"I arrived at my majority and inherited money from that day.

"I arrived at my majority and inherited money from that day.

"I arrived at my majority and inherited money from that day.

"I arrived at my majority and inherited money from that day.

"I arrived at my majority and inherited money from that day.

"I arrived at my majority and inherited money from that day.

"I arrived at my majority and inherited to move to the suburbs. He said.

We will buy a home, the deed to be made out to you and me.' I had such faith in him that I did not read the deed, and never knew until much later that it made him the sole owner of our home. For a year and a half deed, and never knew until much later that it made him the sole owner of our home. For a year and a half at a time my husband would not speak to me, except to abuse me.

"I have stuck to my post for my children's sake. They must have a home and a respectable one and home is the place to entertain, not streat corners or concert halls or cabarets.

"When I have a little social affair for them, once in a while, their father has always said something nasty before their company. The children have said: 'Papa, we need heavy underwear.' He has replied, 'I come first; me, me first; you last.' His wage is $35 to $40 per week.

"It is the American father who cheats the children of happiness, sets the worst example for them, and

In Refreshing Song Recital By Sylvester Rawling. ERBERT WITHERSPOON, the

Witherspoon

politan Opera Company, gave a recital at Carnegie Hall yesterday afternoon to a large and appreciative audience. His programme had the charm of novelty. It bristled with songs underscored as "new," "for the first time in New York," "for the first time in America." and "new and dedicated to Mr. Wither spoon." If nothing else could be said, Mr. Witherspoon deserves thanks for this. Most singers, good, bad or indifferent, give no time to research. Women and men, native and foreign alike, year in and year out, come before us with their stereotyped output of Handel and Beethoven and Schubert and Brahms-great musicians and lieder writers-but the world still moves and songs are composed every day and they don't know it. A voice is a great possession, but brains are a better one, and how few singers have There is monotony in Mr. Wither-spoon's voice. That's inevitable in a basso. But he has the gift of insight He penetrates the thought of the author and the intention of the composer whose songs he sings and he has the capacity to interpret them to the listener. Then his pronunciation of German and of French and of English is distinct. But, Mr. Witherspoon, if you hesitate to take the leap of singing all your songs in English, why print your book of words only in English? Give us the German and French texts when you sing in those languages, admirable as are your own translations into the vernacular.

The new songs were fathered by Humperdinck, Lange-Mueller, Alex. Georges, Charles Widor, Felix Fourdrain, Koeneman, Hammond, and Henry T. Burleigh, the colored singer of the choir of our own St. George's of the choir of our own St. George's Church. The latter's "Ethiopia Saluting the Colors" is plaintive with the feelings of his race. Each held merit and most had charm. The names of Handel, Beethoven, Schubert, Loewe, Hugo Wolf, Richard Strauss and Rubinstein also were on Mr. Witherspoon's all-too-generous programme, and he finished with that rattling old English song. "The Twelve Days of makes them grow up into cynical bachelors and old maids. "MRS. E. S." and he finished with that rathing our English song. "The Twelve Days of Christmas," arranged by Austin, which savored greatly of Percy Grainger. Richard Hageman of the Metropolitan Opera Company played the plane accompaniments admirably.
An incident was the presentation to Mr. Witherspoon of a wreath, attached to which was a silver loving cup, from MOTHERS.

800 CADETS IN REVIEW.

Boys From Hebrew Orphan Asylum

to Hold Thanksgiving Exercises.

Eight hundred cadets of the Hebrev

VIOLENT ATTACKS

St. Jean de Matha, Jan. 27th, 1914.

OF DYSPEPSIA

The Adele Marguiles Trio gave its first recital of the season at Asolian Hall last night, with our old friend, Alwin Schroeder, formerly of the Kneisel Quartet and of the Boston siven a good education and brought up to be respectable members of society. I believe there are many american homes such as ours was and that is why America is so great a nation.

IGNATZ HAMBOR KILLED

AS AUTO TURNS TURTLE

Head of Big Passaic Worsted Mills and Widely Known to Textile Trade.

Ignatz Hambor, President of the Garfield Worsted Mills of Passaic, N. J., and prominent in the textile trade throughout the country, was killed early this morning when his automobile turned turtle at Lakeview and Clifton Avenues, burying him under the wreckage.

Alwin Schroeder, formerly of the Knelsel Quartet and of the Boston Symphony Orchestra, as 'cellist in place of our other old friend Leo Schultz of the Philharmonic Society Orchestra, who never has deserted us for that dear Germany, as once Mr. Schroeder did. The programme began with Schubert's tio in B flat major, opus 19, and ended with Smetana's trio in G minor, opus 10, by Erkt Melartin, one of the best known of Finnish composers, presented for the first time here. Mr. Lichtenberg's playing of the violin has a certain dryness which seemed appropriate to the sonata, which, on a first hearing, made no deep appeal. It is in four movements, the last being omitted last night. In this, as in the two trios, Miss Marguiles played admirably. The Schubert trio was delightful, of course, and the Smetana trio was a joy, with its principal theme evidently the inspiration for that once popular ditty. "Reuben, Reuben, I've been thinking."

Christine Miller, contralto, with a

Christine Miller, contralto, with a Christine Miller, contralto, with a lovely voice that she uses well, gave a recital at Acolian Hall yesterday afternoon. Her programme embraced Bach and Beethoven, a group by Hugo Wolf, and songs in English by John A. Carpenter, G. Sibelia, Pietro Florida, Edward Horsman and A. Walter Kramer. She was least successful in the Wolf songs, which call for something more of intense feeling than Miss Miller imparts to them. Her German and English alike were well pronounced, but it was in the songs German and English alike were well pronounced, but it was in the songs in the vernacular that she was hap-

Orphan Asylum will be reviewed at 11 o'clock to-morrow from the stadium of CASTORIA the College of the City of New York by Major General John F. O'Ryan, who will For Infants and Children be accompanied at the review by Acting be accompanied at the review by Acting Mayor George McAneny, Jacob H. Schiff and Mortimer L. Schiff.

The cadets of the asylum, who are hiking from Trenton, N. J., will be met on their arrival in the city by several companies of cadets who stayed behind and who will participate in the Thanksgiving review. The drum and fic corps of the asylum and the asylum band of ninety-five pieces will play. IN USE FOR OVER 30 YEARS Always bears the Signature of Clar H. Fletcher

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Are a Harmless Substitute.

Suffered Tortures Until She Tried "Fruit-a-tives"

"After suffering for a long time with by "Pruit-a-tives." I suffered so much that at last I would not dare to cat, for I was afraid of dying. Five years ago I received samples of "Fruit-a-tives." and after taking them I felt relief. Then I sent for three boxes and I kept improving until I was well. I quickly regained my lost weight—sand now I eat, sleep and digest well—in a word, I am fully received, thanks to 'Fruit-a-tives."

Mme. CHARBONNEAU.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. They are the re-almost instantaneous. They are the result of Dr. Edwards' Olive tablets when and the trouble and quickly correct it. Why care the expense of the teath like allowed loos, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like almost it with call oned. These pleasant little tablets and their effects the list oned. These pleasant little tablets until the tablets. They don't injure the teeth l

At dealers or from Fruit-a-tives.

At dealers or from Fruit-a-tives.

Limited, Ogdensburg, New York.—Advt

until 9 8. M. No Extra Charge for It.

plest. Several of these she had to repeat, and among the numbers she was forced to add was Cadman's "In the Land of the Sky-Blue Waters," a pretty compliment to the composer, who was in one of the boxes.

George Copeland, the American pl-anist, who has a breeziness of style and a technique sufficiently marked to make him worth hearing, gives a recital at Acollan Hall this afternoon.

American basso of the Metro- Refunds Money U. S. Advanced

WASHINGTON. Nov. 24.—The Treasury Department to-day publicly acknowledged receipt of $192 from Hearl De Lumeau of Milltown, N. J. Lumeau was one of those reported as having failed to refund money advanced by the Government to get him home from Europe at the outbreak of the war. In making payment he asked that publicity be given his action.

How to Look Less Than Your Age

There are three golden rules that every woman who would ward off signs of advancing age should follow:

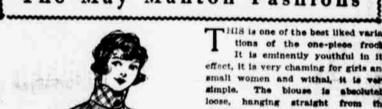

1. Cultivate cheerfulness. Those who understand the physiological effect of worrying know this advice should be taken more seriously than it usually is.

2. Whenever the complexion begins to look worn or withered, use ordinary mercolized wax for a week or two, Apply nightly like cold cream, erasing it mornings with warm water. This gradually abords the thin film of surface skin, revealing the fresher and younger skin underseath. An ounce of the wax, obtainable at any driss siere, is shough for rejuvenate any complexion.

2. When the tell take wrinkles appear,

The May Manton Fashions

Added Seam Allowance). One-Piece Dress for Misses and Small Women, 16 and 18 years.

tions of the one-pless frock It is eminently youthful in ite effect, it is very chaming for girls and small women and withal, it to very simple. The blouse is absolutely loose, hanging straight from the shoulders, confined at the wait be means of the belt, and the plaited skirt is joined to it. There is really no fitting to be accomplished, yet an exceedingly attractive and fashionable costume results. The high collar will appeal to most girls, but the neck can be cut square if preferred. In the picture, plain serge is trimmed with plaid, but one could get a very good effect by using silk on serge or velvet or serge, or by making the frock of broadcloth and trimming it with either one of these materials, or if a comblouse could be made of one material and the skirt and trimming of another, as plain serge with plaid, or taffeta with serge, or wool poplin with silk, either taffets, satin or faille. The model is a typical one of the sea son; it can be utilized for an exceedingly handsome dress of fine material and it can be utilized for an every-day dress of simple material, and be entirely satisfactory for both uses. It is perhaps especially desirable for school and college girls who are alcombines simplicity with smartness. For the 16 years size will be needed 514 yards of material 36 inches wide. 4½ yards 44, 3½ yards 54 inches wide, with ½ yard 44 inches wide for the collar, cuffs, belt and pockets. The pattern No. 8872 is cut in sizes for 16

Call at THE EVENING WORLD MAY MANTON PASHION BUREAU, Donald Building, 100 West Thirty-second street (opposite Gimbel Bros.) corner Sixth avenue and Thirty-second street stamps for each pattern ordered. IMPORTANT—Write your address plainly and always specificate wanted. Add two cents for letter postage if in a hurry.

The Household Remedy for the ailments from which almost everyone sometimes suffers—sick headache, constipation, disturbed sleep, muddy complexion, lassitude, backache, depression and other results of a disordered digestive system-is

They have achieved the distinction of being the most widely used medicine in the world, because millions of people have found them dependable, speedy and sure in their action on stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels.

Compounded from vegetable products, Beecham's Pills are free from harmful minerals and dangerous drugs. They do not promote the physicing habit—do not irritate the bowels. Should be taken by every member of the family at the first sign of illness—so mild and effective that they are good for the aged, and for the ills of childhood, are

Safe for Children

Directions of Special Value to Women with Every Box. Sold by druggists throughout the world. In boxes, 10c, 25e